

Excellence through understanding

Diploma in Occupational Health Nursing Science 2018

The course will be presented over a period of 44 weeks, based on a minimum of 360 teaching periods divided into 8 Modules. (Roughly 1 week per month: Jan – Oct)

Tuition costs

- The full academic year will be charged at R43,500 excl VAT. This includes 8 modules, lectures, study material and prescribed books.
- The cost of short courses is not included in the overall costs. These are for the learners account. (Diploma students do qualify for a preferential rate)
- Transport costs are for the learners account.
- Meals and refreshment costs are not provided for or included.

Recognition of prior learning

- Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) in accordance with the SANC, CHE and Momentum OCSA policy applies.

Recommendation

- Experience in Occupational Health will be an advantage

Application

- Applications open from 1 Aug 2017 to 30 Nov 2017
- Student numbers are limited to ensure quality teaching
- Application fee R585 (non-refundable)
- Registration fee R10 000 due Jan 2018
- Application forms available from: trainingdesk@ocsa.co.za

Study with the leaders

OCSA presents a SANC approved Diploma in Occupational Health Nursing. The successful candidate will be able to register an advanced qualification in Occupational Health Nursing with the SANC.

Entry requirements

- Diploma or degree in General Nursing registered by the SANC
- Current registration with the SANC
- Proof of professional indemnity
- At least 3 years experience as a Professional Nurse
- Students with no experience in Occupational Health or who do not work in OH will do the course over a 2 year period.

Theoretical components

- Lectures are presented at the Academy – no 4 Combrinck str., Alrode, Alberton.
- Attendance of scheduled lectures in accordance with the OCSA academic year programme is required. (360 teaching periods)
- Continuous adult based education with the compilation of a portfolio of evidence throughout the academic year.

Clinical components

- A minimum of 500 experiential learning hours must be done in OH approved clinics.
- Placement of learners within the clinical setting is conducted in accordance with SANC requirements using SANC approved clinic settings.

Course content

The programme comprises of three subjects, presented in an integrated modular format:

- Nursing Dynamics
- Occupational Health
- Occupational Health Nursing Science

Three of the following short courses must be done with Momentum OCSA:

- Audiometry
- Spirometry
- Dispensing
- Family planning

Recognition of prior learning applies.

The short course costs are not included in the course fee.

Contact us

Tel: 011 864 1173, email: trainingdesk@ocsa.co.za, www.ocsa.co.za

